

Welcome to Bridgeway Academy!

Thank you for your enrollment in Bridgeway Academy!

As principal of Bridgeway Academy, I would like to welcome you personally and let you know how pleased I am to count you among a group of individuals who value learning, recognize excellence, and are passionate about homeschooling in all its dimensions. You have entered a circle of homeschoolers, a community that treasures the privilege of educating their children at home.

We believe you'll want to continue your homeschooling adventures with us for years to come. So Bridgeway Academy is here to supply you with a steady stream of creative ideas, fascinating courses, outstanding service, and up to date technology.

We want you to be delighted with your Bridgeway Academy Experience!

With this letter, I hope to begin a dialogue that will last for many years. Just as you've identified yourself as an eager learner and committed homeschooler . . . we want to earn your loyalty as a life long customer! You'll soon discover that our families are a vital part of Bridgeway Academy's curriculum development and service upgrades. We encourage you to evaluate each course you take, provide suggestions for improvement, and give us your opinion regarding new courses and additional services.

So many of our customers are learning enthusiasts, in fact most parents develop an even greater interest in learning and continue one year after another. We even provide an adult education department, with hundreds of online courses that focus directly on lifelong learning. Some even work together in a home school coop to provide the best for their friends and family.

Bridgeway Academy wants to make your home schooling activity as easy and flexible as possible. You don't have to spend a specific amount of time in each subject per day, nor do you need hours in preparation and lesson plan development...we do it all for you! Bridgeway programs fit easily into your life making home schooling enjoyable, while adding mind-enriching value.

Bridgeway's courses offer an upbeat, spiritually sensitive and intellectually stimulating way to learn.

- Excellent Quality: Every course is carefully selected for its ability to be comprehensive, richly detailed, enjoyable and extremely well presented.
- A Company That Listens: We believe deeply in listening to our customers and in asking for their views, opinions, and suggestions. We incorporate student and parent feedback in our course and employee evaluation process and we use it to plan future course offerings and to raise the bar on our already outstanding service.
- FREE E-Zines: look for our frequent Bridgeway Advisor E-zine full of free articles, home schooling ideas, opportunities and updates on current legislation.
- FREE Courses: We are constantly developing FREE courses on-line, which are available only to our members.
- Great Service: Our knowledgeable home school advisors and customer care representatives will happily provide you with the details about our curriculum and services. Our Academic Advisors are here to walk you step by step through your school year and will offer you their expertise to make your homeschooling experience both enjoyable and successful!

Bridgeway Academy makes it easy to assemble your dream curriculum!

Browse through www.bridgewaymembers.com website and start learning today! With Bridgeway Academy and its online resources you have easy access to the most thoughtful and insightful minds in history—we've assembled an online library of thousands of volumes including the great classics of religion and philosophy, history and government, science and literature and much more! Imagine how much you'll learn in just a few hours a day as you school your children.

You as a parent may wish to continue to build knowledge in your particular area of interest, or perhaps consider something out of your usual realm, a course that would expand your mind in a completely different direction. Perhaps as a parent you want to strengthen your computer skills or develop a new career focus for your life. Doing so is easy and attainable, by using our lifelong learning materials. Simply click on E-learning to see the many opportunities to continue your education. You have the choice to turn each day into a rich intellectual adventure. I encourage you to continue learning with your children.

Again, welcome to the Bridgeway Academy community. Look for your customized homeschool package in the coming weeks. We look forward to providing you with the best courses for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Jessica L. Parnell